THIS DEED is made

BY: The employee with the Office of the Information Commission (the OIC) or visitor or work experience person or student named in Item 1 of the Schedule (the Employee).

BACKGROUND:

- A. It is recognised that the nature of OIC work, requires its employees to frequently handle sensitive and confidential information, including information which agencies, individual and third parties may be claiming should not be released as it comprises exempt information or information which on balance would be contrary to the public interest to release.
- B. It is recognised that there is a great public trust placed in the OIC to protect this information from improper use and that disclosure of such information may damage the OIC's ability to perform its functions.
- C. It is recognised that an employee with the OIC should not access, use or release information that is not related to the performance of that employees duties.
- D. It is understood that each employee must:
- give close attention to the classification of information the OIC holds and rigorously uphold the integrity of those classifications;
- access only such information as he or she is specifically authorised to access;
- exercise discretion and caution in discussing information with other OIC officers (and to participants in external review applications);
- ensure no information can be accessed by unauthorised people;
- comply with all confidentiality and security procedures of the OIC (including the clean desk policy and the handling and storage of exempt matter); and
- never use OIC information to further their own personal interests, financial or otherwise.
- E. The Employee agrees to abide by the terms of this Deed.
