

PRIVACY AWARENESS WEEK LAUNCH

FREE EVENT

In-person or via livestream

Privacy Awareness Week (PAW) will be held from 3-9 May 2021 and this year's theme is 'Make privacy a priority'.

The Office of the Information Commissioner invites you to join the launch of PAW 2021, with a keynote presentation from the Crime and Corruption Commission's Chairperson, Mr Alan MacSporran QC, titled:

"I trusted you with my private information" - Government powers and practices to prevent misuse of personal information

The keynote will reflect on lessons from the implementation of Operation Impala, and why building a 'privacy-aware' culture is fundamental to public trust in government.

Also speaking at the launch:

The Hon Shannon Fentiman, MP
Attorney-General and Minister for Justice
Minister for Women
Minister for the Prevention of Domestic and Family Violence

Ms Rachael Rangihaeata
Information Commissioner Queensland

Mr Phil Green
Privacy Commissioner Queensland

With a special Acknowledgement of Country by:

Ms Waveney Yasso
Performer

KEYNOTE
Mr Alan MacSporran QC
Chairperson
Crime and Corruption Commission

TUES 4 MAY 2021

9AM-10AM

The Edge Auditorium
State Library of Qld
Stanley Place
South Bank Q 4101

Register to attend in-person
www.pawqld2021.eventbrite.com.au

(State Library is a COVID safe venue following COVID safe practices)

Or watch the livestream
oic.qld.gov.au/pawlaunch

To find out more about PAW visit oic.qld.gov.au/paw2021

Office of the Information Commissioner
Queensland

3-9 May 2021
PRIVACY
AWARENESS WEEK
Make privacy a priority